EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report contains the most recent update of the Committee's work programme and outlines other items it may wish to schedule into its programme of meetings.

1. RECOMMENDATIONS:

1.1 To make any changes to the work programme as desired.

2. ISSUES AND/OR OPTIONS:

2.1 Members should bear in mind that the work programme is a living document and it is possible to amend, alter and re-schedule items to suit the needs of the Committee.

3. IMPACT ON CORPORATE POLICIES, PRIORITIES, PERFORMANCE AND COMMUNITY IMPACT

3.1 The work programme should reflect issues that are of community interest and assist the Council in producing well considered policies, as well as ensuring it is performing well. Through the effective completion of items on the work programme the Committee should add value to the priorities of the CEF directorate, including contributing to the Children and Young People's Plan.

3.2 When considering items for inclusion on the work programme, Members should assess the relevance and worth of the item to the community.

4. IMPLICATIONS

4.1 Financial

Implications verified by: Sean Clark
 Telephone and email: 01375 652010
sclark@thurrock.gov.uk

There may be financial implications arising from items on the work programme. However, these will be included in future reports to the committee and thereafter to Cabinet/ Council as appropriate.

4.2 Legal

Implications verified by: Tasnim Shawkat
 Telephone and email: 01375 652442
tshawkat@thurrock.gov.uk

There may be legal implications arising from items on the work programme. However, these will be included in future reports to the committee.

The committee as per rule 9.1 of the Constitution is responsible for setting its own work programme and shall consult the Cabinet and members of any minority political groups.

The content of this report is consistent with the provisions of the Council's Constitution and the Local Government Act 2000. The local authority overview and scrutiny function was introduced under the Local Government Act 2000, giving a clearly defined scrutiny role to non-elected members in holding executives of councils to account and in scrutinising the work of other agencies providing local services. A robust and effective scrutiny process is a vital component in the ethical health and governance of a local authority.

4.3 Diversity and Equality

Implications verified by: Samson De'Alyn
 Telephone and email: 01375 652959
sdealyn@thurrock.gov.uk

All of the items detailed in the work programme have medium to high diversity implications. All responsible officers must seek the appropriate input of the Corporate Diversity Team at the initial development stages, and then continue to consult the Diversity Team during the progression of all their planned areas of work.

Comment [sj]: This section should always be completed – if they are dealt with fully in another part of the report, they also need a brief cross reference here. The names and job titles of the officers providing the implications should be provided in full – see Guideline 6.1 and please note Democratic Services Deadlines and ensure that officers providing implications are given 5 clear working days to work on the report. Authors can write implications but they must be signed off by the appropriate officers

Comment [sj]: See Guideline 6.2

Comment [sj]: See Guideline 6.3

Comment [sj]: See Guideline 6.4

4.4 Other implications (where significant) – i.e. Section 17, Risk Assessment, Health Impact Assessment, Sustainability, IT, Environmental

There may be items on the work programme which have implications under Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, however these should be made clear within the individual reports to Committee.

There are no direct Section 17 implications to this report.
