3.3 Local Government & Social Care Ombudsman

There was no cases received from the Ombudsman's office for this reporting year.

3.4 Learning from Complaints

Complaints and feedback provide the service with an opportunity to identify things that can be improved; they provide a vital source of insight about people's experience of social care services.

Upheld complaints are routinely analysed to determine themes and trends and services are responsible for implementing learning swiftly. Robust monitoring and evidencing of corrective actions is a key theme for the next reporting year.

3.5 Looking Forward

The Corporate Complaints Team continues to facilitate the customer feedback process for Children Statutory Services.

The team will be looking to provide further guidance and support to all services and the focus will be on improving the handling of complaints, the quality of responses and to increase learning from complaints and compliments, to ensure that a robust mechanism is in place for sharing lessons learnt, best practice and potential development.

Further detail on work priorities is outlined in Appendix 1.

4. Reasons for Recommendation

- 4.1 It is a statutory requirement to produce an annual complaints report on children social care complaints. It is best practice for this to be considered by Overview and Scrutiny. This report is for monitoring and noting.

5. Consultation (including Overview and Scrutiny, if applicable)

- 5.1 This report has been agreed with the Children Social Care senior management team. Consideration of complaints issues and learning and improvement arising from them are identified as an ongoing priority in the report.

6. Impact on corporate policies, priorities, performance and community impact

- 6.1 All learning and key trends identified in the complaints and compliments reporting has a direct impact on the quality of service delivery and performance. The reporting ensures that valuable feedback received from service users and carers is captured effectively and regularly monitored with the primary focus on putting things right or highlighting and promoting where services are working well.
